Proverbs 2:12-22 [Page 606]

Wisdom will save you from the ways of wicked men, from men whose words are perverse, who have left the straight paths to walk in dark ways, who delight in doing wrong and rejoice in the perverseness of evil, whose paths are crooked and who are devious in their ways.

Wisdom will save you also from the adulterous woman, from the wayward woman with her seductive words, who has left the partner of her youth and ignored the covenant she made before God.

Surely her house leads down to death and her paths to the spirits of the dead. None who go to her return or attain the paths of life.

Thus you will walk in the ways of the just and keep to the paths of the righteous. For the upright will live in the land, and the blameless will remain in it;

but the wicked will be cut off from the land, and the unfaithful will be torn from it.

Proverbs 6:30 and 31

People do not despise a thief if he steals to satisfy his hunger when he is starving ... but a man who commits adultery has no sense; whoever does so destroys himself.

The lies we have been told:

- I have needs

Proverbs 5:3-4

The lips of an adulterous woman drip honey and her speech is smoother than oil; but in the end she is bitter as gall, sharp as a double edged sword.

The lies we have been told:

- I have needs
- How can something that feels so good be wrong?

Proverbs 5:8

Keep to a path far from her, do not go near the door of her house.

Solomon's advice:

- Keep well away

Proverbs 4:23

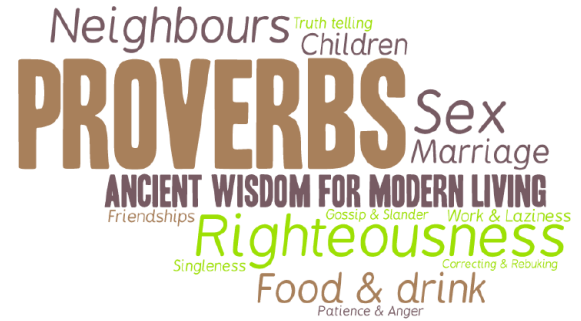

Above all else, guard your heart, for everything you do flows from it.

Solomon's advice:

- Keep well away
- Guard your thoughts

1 John 1:9

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, we have sinned against you and against our neighbour in thought and word and deed

through negligence, through weakness, through our own deliberate fault.
