

St Barnabas Mission Partners

Jo Jowett

Jo Jowett lives in Birmingham with her husband, Mark, and works for Global Connections - an organisation that promotes and facilitates mission in the UK and overseas. Jo and Global Connections fulfil a vital role in resourcing mission around the world.

Since Jo's last prayer update, she has had a very busy summer season of events where Christian Vocations runs SERVICEstation, an advice service for large Christian events to help visitors seeking help with vocational issues and service opportunities. Jo's mobilisation activities have continued, including production of the 2018 edition of SERVEShort-term, the development of regional mission agency partnerships, managing large event relationships, all with a new boss, which inevitably brings about some change.

Jo chairs a partnership of mission agencies that run GOfest, a movement of mission-focused agencies and churches who together want to see UK Christians fully engaged in the Great Commission. Follow-up with local churches is ongoing following the first 'new' GOfest event in May. The next event will be at All Nations Christian College on 12 May 2018.

Mark's business is now one year old and going well. The increased flexibility this has given Mark has meant he has been able to assist Jo in some of her work, particularly during the event season.

City Pastors continues to be a great opportunity to engage with Birmingham's night-time economy, though more people are needed for the next training at the end of October.

Jo has just recovered from a back injury over the summer and has now had a fall, necessitating crutches having sustained an ankle ligament injury.

Give thanks for:

- The many people that the Christian Vocations team spoke to at SERVICEstation, and that they will be released into new areas of service
- God's provision for Jo and Mark this year
- Good relationships with key partners in the city

Please pray for:

- Life-changing experiences to come out of all the work that Jo is involved in
- Wisdom in planning future GOfest events, particularly as Global Connections listens to, and serves, local churches
- Jo to have a quick recovery from her ankle injury, and that the injury won't disrupt her busy schedule too much

Please remember to tear this slip off your bulletin or pick up a prayer postcard from the World Mission Support notice board if you would like to remember Jo in prayer. If you would like more information about mission or are interested in being part of World Mission Support please email: bethstone@stbarnabas.co.uk

Vacancies

Children's Pastor

Following the recent announcement that Grace McPhilemy is leaving the staff team, we are now looking for a new Children's Pastor. The successful candidate will be responsible for leading a team of volunteers in running and developing our thriving programme for 0s-11s within St Bs, as well as overseeing outreach initiatives to local children and their families. Must have a proven track-record of empowering and equipping teams to lead renewed children's ministry, and a heart for children and families evangelism.

World Missions Pastor

We are looking for a new World Missions Pastor to lead and develop the work of St Bs World Mission Support (WMS) and provide support for our mission partners across the world. The successful candidate will have experience in overseas missions, have a passion for world mission, excellent communication, interpersonal and organisational skills.

For more information on either of these vacancies contact:

Bella Mutevelian ☎ 020 8343 5770
